

Imran Amin

Senior Fellow, Centre for Development Practice

Ambedkar University Delhi

imran@aud.ac.in

Bio

Dr. Imran Amin is a political scientist by training and has worked on the rationality and practice of governmental power in the governance of violent conflicts. His areas of research interests include Governance as Practice, Conflict Governance, and Governmentality of Development. He has authored a book chapter Theorizing State, Governance and Citizenship: Historical Trajectories (2015). He has co authored an article on Homogenising Discourses of Governance. Identity and Autonomy in Jharkhand (2015), as well as a policy brief on “Conflict, governance and development”, for Cultures of Governance and Conflict Resolution in Europe and India, Peace Research Institute Oslo (PRIO) (2013). He has also written modules on Public Policy Analysis and Governance, for e-Post Graduate Pathshala, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India (2014).

Link to Bio

<http://cdp.res.in/dr-imran-amin/>