

Anup Dhar

Professor of Philosophy, Ambedkar University Delhi

anup@aud.ac.in

Bio

Anup Dhar's co-authored books include Dislocation and Resettlement in Development: From Third World to World of the Third (Routledge, 2009), and The Indian Economy in Transition: Globalization, Capitalism and Development (Cambridge University Press, 2015). His co-edited books include Breaking the Silo: Integrated Science Education in India (Orient Blackswan, 2017), Psychoanalysis in Indian Terroir: Emerging Themes in Culture, Family, and Childhood (Lexington Books, 2018), Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual (Routledge, 2020) and Clinic, Critique, Culture: Philosophy and Praxis of Psychoanalysis in India (forthcoming: Orient Blackswan, 2021). He is currently working on an annotated edition of the English writings of Girindrasekhar Bose titled Aboriginal Psychoanalysis and a co-authored book in Bengali (translated as The Past and Future of the 'Political').

Books

https://www.amazon.in/Books-Anup-Dhar/s?rh=n%3A976389031%2Cp_27%3AAnup+Dhar

<https://anupdhar.academia.edu/research#books>