

Ekta Oza

PhD Scholar, School of Geography

Queen Mary University of London

Bio

Ekta Oza is a PhD Scholar at the School of Geography, Queen Mary University of London. Her PhD focuses on children and young people who take part in protests in India-occupied Kashmir. Her areas of interest include geographies of childhood, political agency, psychoanalysis and affect studies. She is the lead researcher and lead author of the book, 'Restless in the City: Conversations with Young People in Resettlement Colonies' (2021), published by SAGE-Yoda Press.